Informationen about the new: EU-Data-protection-basic-regulation DSGVO valid from 25.05.2018

Dear Sir or Madam,

We updated our Data protection to reflect changes we have made to strengthen your privacy. This is part of our commitment to transparency regarding the use and safekeeping of your data. We have also made changes that take into account the new standards of European data protection law, the EU Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We believe that you should always know what information we collect from you and how we use it, and that you should have the relevant control over both. As part of our ongoing commitment to transparency and in preparation for new privacy laws coming into force this month, we are updating our privacy policy to allow you to make the best possible decisions about the information you wish to share with us.

We do NOT process any of your data or disclosure to third parties.

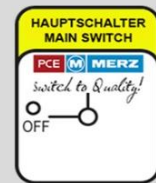

We use your e-mail address for advertising goods or services, which are similar to those that you already purchased from us that will compliment your current product. You may object to this use of your e-mail address at any time by notifying us.

The contact details for the exercise of the contradiction can be found in the Legal information.

You can also use the dedicated link in each newsletter email.

There are no other costs than the transmission costs according to the basic tariffs.

So! It's time
"turn us on"!
